The CSI Student branch at G. H. Patel College of Engineering and Technology (GCET) organized a coding contest on C/C++, “CodeVie 5.0”, on 13th September, 2019. The event was preceded by a SIG (Student Interest Group) on C/C++ to motivate students to take up competitive programming.

The SIG was organized for the first and second year students of Computer Engineering and Information Technology Department. The first session of SIG was on basics of C exclusively for 1st year students. The second session of SIG provided exposure of various competitive programming platforms to the students.

The contest was organized for the first, second and third year students of Computer Engineering and Information Technology Department. The contest comprised of two rounds, both of which were hosted on HACKEREARTH.

Round I of the contest consisted of 10 MCQs and 6 coding questions of easy to moderate difficulty level. 40 students qualified for the Round II.

Round II required students to crack 6 codes of higher difficulty level in a team of 2.

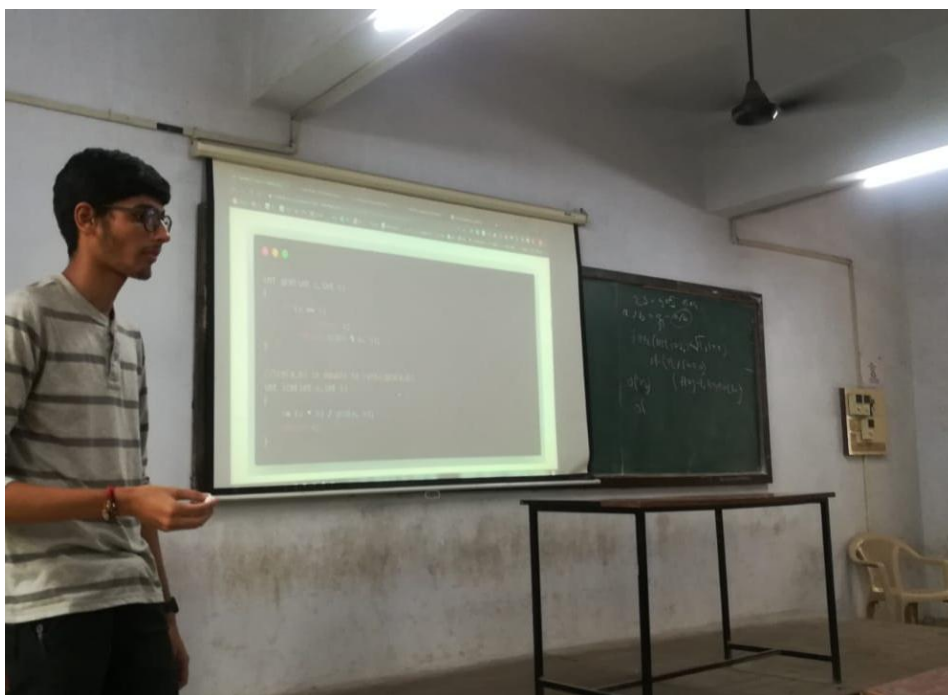

Students learned to apply different approaches to one problem and also developed their reasoning and logical skills.

The Winners of the contest are mentioned below.

Winner: Ankit Vekariya and Utsav Vaghani (3rd year)

Runner up: Dev Vaghani and Mohak Shah (2nd year)
