

Report on

“Selected Case studies on Articles 14, 19 and 21” by Ms. Sherin Priyan

An expert talk was organized on “Selected Case studies on Articles 14, 19 and 21” by Ms. Sherin Priyan, Research Scholar in Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) at IIT Kharagpur for All four-year civil engineering students on 09th September, 2020

AIM:

The main aim of the expert talk was to aware the students about importance of various case studies on Articles 14, 19 and 21 of Indian Constitution.

About the Talk:

Ms. Sherin Priyan, a Phd Scholar in IPR at IIT Kharagpur has conducted a session about importance of Articles 14, 19 and 21 of Indian Constitution.

The expert talk on “Case studies on Articles 14, 19 and 21” covered the areas of relevance of Fundamental Rights in recent times with examples of current times. It talked about the importance of fundamental rights of individuals especially the articles 14, 19 and 21 which together are referred to as the golden triangle of the Indian Constitution. The cases of Keshavananda Bharati v state of Kerala (popularly known as the Fundamental rights case). Maneka Gandhi v Union of India and Puttuswamy v Union of India (known as the Aadhar judgement) were discussed. Overall, the lecture aimed at making the students understand the concept of fundamental rights of an individual and the cases supporting these rights.

Overall, the lecture was a brain storming session for all participants. From this lecture, students got the information about importance of Fundamental Rights and relevant case studies based on it.