Introduction

The Mechatronics Department of G H Patel College of Engineering and Technology, in collaboration with the Student Start-up and Innovation Policy (SSIP) Cell, organized a sensitization program on “Introduction to Student Start-up and Innovation Policy (SSIP-2.0)” on 20th August 2025. The objective of this session was to introduce students to the framework of SSIP-2.0 and to motivate them to take up innovative projects and entrepreneurial activities during their academic journey.

Objectives

- To familiarize students with the vision and objectives of the SSIP-2.0 framework.
 - To sensitize students about available support for start-ups and innovations.
 - To encourage students to actively participate in innovation and entrepreneurship activities.
 - To guide students on how SSIP can help in project funding, prototyping, and incubation.

Highlights of the Session

- Overview of SSIP-2.0: The speaker explained the importance of nurturing innovation and the opportunities SSIP provides to students.
 - Innovation Ecosystem: Students were introduced to the innovation and incubation facilities available under CVMU and SSIP.
 - Support Mechanisms: Detailed insights into financial and infrastructural support for projects, patents, and product development were shared.
 - Motivation for Entrepreneurship: Students were encouraged to pursue entrepreneurial activities alongside academics.
 - Interactive Q&A: Students actively engaged with the speaker, clarifying queries regarding project funding, idea submission, and incubation process.

Outcomes

1. Students gained awareness of SSIP-2.0 policies and its role in supporting innovations.
 2. Enhanced motivation among students to transform ideas into prototypes.
 3. Better understanding of the procedures for availing SSIP funding and incubation facilities.
 4. Strengthened link between academics and innovation-driven activities.

Feedback

The session was well received by the 2nd-year Mechatronics students. Students appreciated the insights shared by the speaker and expressed keen interest in participating in innovation activities under SSIP.

Conclusion

The sensitization program on “Introduction to Student Start-up & Innovation Policy (SSIP-2.0)” was a successful initiative to inspire and guide students toward entrepreneurship and innovation. It provided valuable exposure to the ecosystem of SSIP and motivated students to align their academic projects with innovative practices.
